Students must be in Upper Level to take shaded courses.

FOOTNOTES FOR ALL CURRICULA

1. English 104 is a core curriculum requirement. Enrollment is restricted to students with freshman or sophomore classification (transfer hours included).
2. MATH 131, 151, or 171 will be accepted in lieu of MATH 142. MATH 152, 166, or 172 will be accepted in lieu of MATH 141.
3. To be selected from the list of American History Electives, limited to 3 hours of Texas History (page 34). Most business students take HIST 105 and HIST 106.
4. For those students under ROTC contract, see section on "Requirement in Political Science (Government) and History" in the Undergraduate Catalog.
5. Choose from the list of Natural Science Electives (page 35).
6. Kinesiology requirements are to be fulfilled by completing one KINE 198 Health and Fitness and one KINE 199 course. KINE 199 MUST be taken S/U. KINE 198 may be taken graded or S/U. Transfer students with fewer than 2 hours KINE must meet the KINE 198 requirement either by transfer of credit or by taking the course at Texas A&M.
7. Behavioral Science Elective to be selected from a specific list of courses in Anthropology, Psychology, Sociology and Women's Studies (page 34). Students majoring in Management or Marketing must take PSYC 107.
8. Choose from the list of Visual and Performing Arts Electives (page 38-39).
9. To be selected from the list of International Electives for business students (page 40-42). Six hours required. Management majors must take MGMT 450 as three of these required international elective credit hours. Agribusiness majors should go to 331 Blocker for a complete list of approved international electives.
10. Choose from the list of Humanities Electives (pages 36-38).
11. General Electives are any courses offered for university credit. Students may register for elective courses on a graded or pass/fail basis (S/U). See page 12 for S/U grading information. Students whose high school transcript does not satisfy Texas A&M University's Foreign Language Graduation Requirement MUST complete a two-semester sequence of a foreign language. These credits earned will count toward the general elective requirement.
12. Effective in Catalog 200731 (130), business students must take two (2) specific writing-designated (W) courses in their major. This course is an approved W course in the major.
13. Any 300- or 400-level Accounting course except ACCT 315, 316, 327, or 328. Before enrolling in ACCT 489, students should check with an advisor in the Accounting Department.
14. Any Finance course except FINC 201, 267, 409, 478, and 484.
15. MIS and Supply Chain Management majors select their directed electives from the lists located in the Undergraduate Program Office, 238 Wehner. Students who wish to use courses that are not listed must obtain prior approval from the department academic advisor.
16. Choose from any MGMT course except required MGMT courses and MGMT 105, 209, 309.
