

Joan E. Sanders, C. P. A.

Education	May 1990	Texas A&M University	College Station, TX
	M. S. in Business Computer Science Minor in Educational Technology		GPA 4.0/4.0
	May 1988	Texas A&M University	College Station, TX
	B. S. in Accounting		GPA 3.75/4.0
Professional License	Certified Public Accountant , January 1993.
Experience
	2003-present	Sanders Consulting	Lexington, TX
	Independent Consultant
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ Provide Customized Business Modeling and Excel Training ▪ Provide Business Process Consulting
	1999-present	Texas A&M University	College Station, TX
	Mays Business School Department of Accounting
	Principal Lecturer (2000-present) Professional Program in Accounting
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ Teach undergraduate and graduate courses in Accounting Information Systems ▪ Participate in the design of the degree content, program structure and course scheduling for the Professional Program ▪ Advise Professional Program students in the areas of course selection, career counseling and placement ▪ Manage the Professional Program Data Information Systems ▪ Maintain professional relationships with practitioners through on-site visits, meetings and guest speaker engagements
	MS/MIS Faculty Advisor and Lecturer (1999-2000)
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ Teach undergraduate and graduate courses in Management Information Systems ▪ Participate in the design of the degree content, program structure and course scheduling for the masters program ▪ Advise masters students in the areas of course selection, career counseling and placement ▪ Chair the committee for M.S./M.B.A. Technology Management ▪ Assign and supervise the Graduate Assistants for the department
	1991-1999	Texas State Chemist Office	College Station, TX
	Information Systems Administrator (1991-1999)
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ Managed the Information Technology Department ▪ Coordinated the acquisition, installation and implementation of computer hardware and software for the office's network, Internet, workstation, telecommunications and mobile computer applications ▪ Designed a LAN-based Management Information System using Microsoft's Visual Studio and SQL Server to replace the mainframe system that manages all regulatory and laboratory information throughout the office ▪ Approved, prioritized, designed and tested modifications to customized database applications ▪ Trained field and office employees on the use of computer applications

Experience
(cont.)

Purchasing Manager (1997-1999)

- Managed the Purchasing Department
- Signed and approved purchase orders
- Oversaw the bidding, ordering, receipt, payment and inventory of office equipment and supplies
- Managed a five-year plan to estimate and track expenditures for computer and office purchases

Supervisory Compliance Auditor (1991-1997)

- Managed the audit program
- Planned and conducted over 500 audits of agricultural corporations throughout the country including detailed EDP auditing procedures
- Collected approximately $500,000 in unreported fees primarily from the discovery of poorly designed Management Information Systems
- Worked with other departments to apply the laws to unprecedented audit situations
- Conducted internal operational and financial reviews for compliance with current State, System and TAES rules and regulations

1988-1991

Texas A&M University

College Station, TX

Programmer/Analyst for Computing Information Services

- Designed, developed and documented the following database systems for the Texas State Chemist Office:

Accounts Receivable	Auditing
Statistics	Security
Compliance	Registration

- Converted and maintained the following database systems for the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station Bookkeeping System:

Appropriations & Credits	Payroll
Purchase Orders	Vouchers
Budget	Year End Processing

- Supervised and organized tasks assigned to the project team
- Trained Texas A&M System employees in the use of IBM's Professional Office Automation System

Service

- AIS Program Coordinator, 2015-present
- Academic Advocate, ISACA, 1999-present
- Associate Director, Professional Program, 2000-2015
- Associate Member of the Graduate Faculty, 1999-present
- Volunteer Youth Director, Holy Family Catholic Church, 2010-present
- Parent Representative, Class of 2024, Lexington High School, 2015-present
- Parent Representative, Campus Improvement Committee; Lexington School System, 2008-2011
- Finance Committee, Holy Family Catholic Church, 1993-2008

Societal Impact
Statement

In my technology based courses I specifically talk about the impact and consequences of the Information Age and make sure students understand the tradeoffs between convenience and security and privacy.

My International Field Trip has sustainability threaded into each of the educational and cultural activities. As we explore Africa we also explore the practicability of economic, societal and environmental factors.