

Professional Distinction in ANALYTICS & CONSULTING

About

The Professional Distinction in Analytics and Consulting complements the student's degree and provides tangible evidence of rigorous experiential preparation for a career in analytics and consulting. This Professional Distinction is open to students in any major!

How to Earn Points

Required:

Actively participate in the Business Analytics and Consulting Association (BACA) . Earn 400 points in a semester, as outlined by the Club's rules.

Students must earn a minimum of 100 points in each of these areas:

Networking

- Attend guest speaker lectures
- Attend career fairs
- Networking events with potential employers

Experience

- Relevant internships
- Part time work
- Advertising projects
- BACA Officer

Certification & Training

- Relevant certification programs
- Coursework (NOT including required curriculum)
- Workshops
- Subscription to a relevant journal

There are many different ways to earn points! These are just a few examples.

Achievement

The Professional Distinction in Analytics and Consulting is a semester by semester recognition. Students must receive 400 points through analytics and consulting high impact opportunities in order to receive the recognition.

Students who complete four semesters of Professional Distinction in Analytics and Consulting will receive a medal at graduation.

Getting Involved

Active membership in the Business Analytics and Consulting Association will expose students meaningfully to career paths in analytics & consulting. Students who have an interest in analytics & consulting should join this organization as part of their career preparation.

To learn more, contact:

Dr. Akshaya Sreenivasan

ASreenivassan@mays.tamu.edu

Track Chair and Business Analytics & Consulting Association

Resume Material

Example: Professional Distinction in Analytics & Consulting, four semesters

TEXAS A&M UNIVERSITY

Mays Business School